FEDERAL PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT:

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) will be collecting information you gave to the Copper River Basin Regional Housing Authority (CRBRHA) at application or re-examination. HUD will collect the information on Form HUD-50058. The data it will collect includes: names, sex, birthdays, social security numbers, income (by Source), assets, certain deductible expenses and rental payment.

The Privacy Act of 1874, as amended, requires us to tell you about this, we are also required to tell you what HUD will do with the information. HUD will use the information to manage and monitor HUD assisted housing program. It also may verify whether information is accurate and complete by doing a computer match.

HUD may give the information to Federal, State and local agencies when it will be used for civil, criminal, or regulatory and persecutions. HUD also may summaries of resident data available to the public. Other than these uses, HUD will not release the information outside of HUD, except as permitted or required by law.

The Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, 42 U.S.C. 3543 requires applicants and residents to give the Authority the Social Security Numbers (SSN(s)) of household members of at least six (6) years of age. If you are an applicant and you have been issued or use SSN(s) and you do not give them to the Authority, the Authority is required to evict your family or withdraw your housing assistance.

The U.S. Housing Act of 1937, as amended, 42 U.S.C. et Seq. And the Housing and Community Development Act of 1981, P.L. 97-35, 85 stat., 348, 408 require applicants and residents to provide the other information (listed in the first paragraph) to the Authority. If you are receiving housing assistance and you do not give the Authority this information, the Authority may have to evict you or withdraw your housing assistance.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW

Don't risk your chance for federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application and recertification forms.

Purpose:

This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.

Penalties for Committing Fraud:

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification form contains false or incomplete information, you may be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received
- Fined up to $10,000.00
- Imprisoned for up to five (5) years and/or
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance

Your State and local government may have other laws and penalties as well.

Asking Questions:

When you sit down with the person who fills out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something say so. That person can answer your question or find out what the answer is.

Completing the application

When you give your answers to application questions, you must include the following information:

Income:

- All sources of money you and any "adult" member of the family who receives (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pensions, etc.)
- Any money received on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.)
- Income from assets (interest from a savings account, credit union, or certificate of deposit, dividends from stocks, Alaska Permanent Fund Dividends, etc.)
- Earnings from a second job or part time job.
- Any anticipated income (such as a bonus or pay raise you expect to receive.)

Assets:

- All bank accounts saving bonds, certificates of deposits, stocks, real estates, etc that are owned by you or any adult member of your family household who will be living with you.
- Any business or asset you sold in the last twelve (12) months for less than its full value, such as your home to your children.

Family Household Members:

- The names of all the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you whether or not they are related to you.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW CONTINUED

Signing the Application:

- Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is complete and accurate.
- When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- Information you give on your application will be verified by CRBRHA. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you reported with various Federal, State, or private agencies to verify that it is correct.

Recertification:

You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must recertify. You must report on recertification forms:

- All income changes, such as pay increases or benefits, change of jobs, loss of jobs, loss of benefits, etc., for all adult family household members.
- Any family household member who has moved in our out.
- All assets that you or your family household members own and any asset that was sold in the last two (2) years for less than its full value.

Beware of Fraud:

You should be aware of the following fraud schemes:

- Do not pay any money to file an application
- Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list
- Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease
- Get a receipt for the money you paid
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay any money other than rent (such as maintenance charges, etc.)

Reporting Abuse:

If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to persuade you to make false statements report them to the manager of your project or Housing Authority. If you cannot report to the manager, call the local HUD office or the HUD hotline at (202) 472-4200. This is not a toll free number. You can also write to the HUD Hotline, Room 8254, 451 Seventh Street, S.W. Washington, D.C. 20410.

Authority: Section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988, as amended by Section 903 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 and Section 3003 of the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. This law is found at 42 U.S.C. 3544.

This law requires that you sign a consent form authorizing: (1) HUD and the Housing Agency/Authority (HA) to request verification of salary and wages from current or previous employers; (2) HUD and the HA to request wage and unemployment compensation claim information from the state agency responsible for keeping that information; (3) HUD to request certain tax return information from the U.S. Social Security Administration and the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. The law also requires independent verification of income information. Therefore, HUD or the HA may request information from financial institutions to verify your eligibility and level of benefits.

Purpose: In signing this consent form, you are authorizing HUD and the above-named HA to request income information from the sources listed on the form. HUD and the HA need this information to verify your household's income, in order to ensure that you are eligible for assisted housing benefits and that these benefits are set at the correct level. HUD and the HA may participate in computer matching programs with these sources in order to verify your eligibility and level of benefits.

Uses of Information to be Obtained: HUD is required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a. HUD may disclose information (other than tax return information) for certain routine uses, such as to other government agencies for law enforcement purposes, to Federal agencies for employment suitability purposes and to HAs for the purpose of determining housing assistance. The HA is also required to protect the income information it obtains in accordance with any applicable State privacy law. HUD and HA employees may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper uses of the income information that is obtained based on the consent form. Private owners may not request or receive information authorized by this form.

Who Must Sign the Consent Form: Each member of your household who is 18 years of age or older must sign the consent form. Additional signatures must be obtained from new adult members joining the household or whenever members of the household become 18 years of age.

Persons who apply for or receive assistance under the following programs are required to sign this consent form:

- PHA-owned rental public housing
- Turnkey III Homeownership Opportunities
- Mutual Help Homeownership Opportunity
- Section 23 and 19(c) leased housing
- Section 23 Housing Assistance Payments
- HA-owned rental Indian housing
- Section 8 Rental Certificate
- Section 8 Rental Voucher
- Section 8 Moderate Rehabilitation

Failure to Sign Consent Form: Your failure to sign the consent form may result in the denial of eligibility or termination of assisted housing benefits, or both. Denial of eligibility or termination of benefits is subject to the HA's grievance procedures and Section 8 informal hearing procedures.

Sources of Information To Be Obtained

State Wage Information Collection Agencies. (This consent is limited to wages and unemployment compensation I have received during period(s) within the last 5 years when I have received assisted housing benefits.)

U.S. Social Security Administration (HUD only) (This consent is limited to the wage and self employment information and payments of retirement income as referenced at Section 6103(l)(7)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code.)

U.S. Internal Revenue Service (HUD only) (This consent is limited to unearned income [i.e., interest and dividends].)

Information may also be obtained directly from: (a) current and former employers concerning salary and wages and (b) financial institutions concerning unearned income (i.e., interest and dividends). I understand that income information obtained from these sources will be used to verify information that I provide in determining eligibility for assisted housing programs and the level of benefits. Therefore, this consent form only authorizes release directly from employers and financial institutions of information regarding any period(s) within the last 5 years when I have received assisted housing benefits.

Consent: I consent to allow HUD or the HA to request and obtain income information from the sources listed on this form for the purpose of verifying my eligibility and level of benefits under HUD's assisted housing programs. I understand that HAs that receive income information under this consent form cannot use it to deny, reduce or terminate assistance without first independently verifying what the amount was, whether I actually had access to the funds and when the funds were received. In addition, I must be given an opportunity to contest those determinations.

This consent form expires 15 months after signed.

Privacy Act Notice. Authority: The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is authorized to collect this information by the U.S. Housing Act of 1937 (42 U.S.C. 1437 et. seq.), Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000d), and by the Fair Housing Act (42 U.S.C. 3601-19). The Housing and Community Development Act of 1987 (42 U.S.C. 3543) requires applicants and participants to submit the Social Security Number of each household member who is six years old or older. Purpose: Your income and other information are being collected by HUD to determine your eligibility, the appropriate bedroom size, and the amount your family will pay toward rent and utilities. Other Uses: HUD uses your family income and other information to assist in managing and monitoring HUD-assisted housing programs, to protect the Government's financial interest, and to verify the accuracy of the information you provide. This information may be released to appropriate Federal, State, and local agencies, when relevant, and to civil, criminal, or regulatory investigators and prosecutors. However, the information will not be otherwise disclosed or released outside of HUD, except as permitted or required by law. Penalty: You must provide all of the information requested by the HA, including all Social Security Numbers you, and all other household members age six years and older, have and use. Giving the Social Security Numbers of all household members six years of age and older is mandatory, and not providing the Social Security Numbers will affect your eligibility. Failure to provide any of the requested information may result in a delay or rejection of your eligibility approval.

Penalties for Misusing this Consent:

HUD, the HA and any owner (or any employee of HUD, the HA or the owner) may be subject to penalties for unauthorized disclosures or improper uses of information collected based on the consent form.

Use of the information collected based on the form HUD 9886 is restricted to the purposes cited on the form HUD 9886. Any person who knowingly or willfully requests, obtains or discloses any information under false pretenses concerning an applicant or participant may be subject to a misdemeanor and fined not more than $5,000.

Any applicant or participant affected by negligent disclosure of information may bring civil action for damages, and seek other relief, as may be appropriate, against the officer or employee of HUD, the HA or the owner responsible for the unauthorized disclosure or improper use.
